

Carolyn Mirabile Appointed to Pennsylvania Bar Association's Family Law Section Committees

October 12, 2012

Carolyn Mirabile

Carolyn Mirabile, partner in the Norristown office of Weber Gallagher and member of the firm's Family Law practice group, has been appointed to the Programming Committee and Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's (PBA) Family Law Section. The 1,400-member, statewide group is based in Harrisburg, PA.

Ms. Mirabile concentrates her practice in the area of Family Law, including divorce, support, custody, property distribution and the drafting of marital settlement agreements. In addition to her litigation practice, she has served as a court appointed custody mediator for more than a decade. Ms. Mirabile has also presented several mediation training courses and conducts mediation in the area of divorce.

Ms. Mirabile has been actively involved in the PBA since 1993. She was appointed to both the Programming Committee and Executive Committee by the President of the PBA's Family Law section. As part of her role in the Programming Committee, she will be responsible for selecting topics and speakers for the biannual meetings, as well as moderating monthly committee conference calls.

Ms. Mirabile will also moderate the Executive Committee's regular calls, as well as serve as a sounding board when the committee presents its agenda to the larger Council once every month. Members of the Executive Committee are also responsible for making decisions when the larger Council is not in session.

Ms. Mirabile is a 1988 graduate of Villanova University. She earned her J.D. at the Villanova University School of Law in 1991.

About Weber Gallagher

Weber Gallagher Simpson Stapleton Fires & Newby LLP has more than 100 lawyers and 22 civil practice areas. The firm provides legal counseling and representation in the Mid-Atlantic United States to local, national and international businesses, financial institutions and insurance companies. To learn more, visit www.wglaw.com.